Mrs. Donald A. Wilson,
P. O. Box 11,
Medina, Wash., U. S. A.

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

Many thanks for your letter of 4th inst., in reply to my query about the Huycks. Your co-operation is appreciated.

We have in Canada an Association which is somewhat the counterpart of the D. A. R., only we admit all descendants, male or female, to membership. One of our projects is to collect the ancestry of our first people, those who emigrated to our country from the United States following the American Revolution. This is a huge undertaking, but one which we feel is well worth the effort.

Among these first settlers were several by the name of Huyck, and in no instance do we know the ancestry. For the sake of identification I wish to state what we know of each. They are:

1. Lieutenant John Huyck, born about 1750, and apparently called 'Junior,' in 1780, when he was imprisoned by the authority of the Commissioners for Defeating Conspiracies. At that time he was of 'Acquatough,' in Albany County, N. Y. He had been associated with Major Peter Van Alstine in the army of General Burgoyne in the campaign of 1777. He came to Canada, by way of Quebec, in the fall of 1783, with his wife, Sarah, and 2 sons & one daughter. His children included sons, Burgher, John, Edward and Garret, and daughters Jane, Ruth.
2. Peter Huyck, who, as a young man, was imprisoned at the same time as was John, Jr., noted in item 1. He did not apparently come to Canada until after 1784. His children included Am, Cornelius, Catharine, Joseph P., and Henry P.
3. Isaac C. Huyck, who came as a settler in 1796 or 1797
4. Andrew C. Huyck. This may be the Andries Huyck, of Schodack, Albany County, who refused to take the oath of association in 1778, and who, with others, was transported to Fishkill for imprisonment. In 1783, February 8, it was recommended that he be transported to the enemy lines because of his refusal to take the oath of association.

In compensation for any information which you may be able to supply, I am prepared to furnish you with such as I have in my files on the Huycks.

Again my thanks for your interest.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ontario,
Canada.

Records of Adolphustown Town Meetings.

Personal Notes.

John Huyck.

John Huyck, the last on the list of the officers of the first town meetings, resided north of Hay Bay, where he lived and died, and where some of his descendants are still living. ~~The~~ The family are active and well-to-do. Their father, Edward Huyck, was an officer in the Militia, and one of the early timber men who took rafts to Quebec in those early days. There were several members of the original family--sons and daughters--and the family has always been represented in the township, but only one or two of the family name are now there. His father, Edward Huyck, probably built the first stone house in Adolphustown, which is still standing, and is occupied.

BLAKE HUYCK DIED SUDDENLY, LAST FRIDAY

1951

The sudden death of Blake Huyck on Friday evening, Nov. 2nd, came as a great shock to his family and many friends. He succumbed to a heart attack about 10:20 p.m. while in his car, about five miles east of Napanee, on No. 2 Highway.

Mr. Huyck, who was a salesman for the R. H. McFarland Auto Sales Co., had volunteered to accompany another employee to help pull a car out of the ditch. After the car was on the road again, Mr. Huyck got in his car and a few minutes later was found slumped over the wheel. A doctor was called, but he had expired before the doctor arrived.

Edwey Blake Huyck was born 62 years ago in Adolphustown Township and was the only son of the late Benjamin Huyck and Mary Jane Frink. After his marriage to Charlotte M. Wagar, he purchased a farm next to his father's home. Later he moved to Hay Bay and after a short time returned to his father's farm, where he remained until he moved to Napanee, 35 years ago. He was a mechanic in the garage operated by the late William Normile for a short time. Then he managed the Napanee Canning Factory, later the Deseronto Factory and for a year was in charge of a canning factory at Claremont.
For the past twenty years he was a salesman for R. H. McFarland and at times, operated a taxi service. He was well known by a large circle of friends and well liked by his employer and by those with whom he was associated in business. He was a member of Grace United Church and of No. 86 Lodge, I.O.O.F.

He is survived by his wife and two children, Josephine, Mrs. Robert Leury of Stirling, and Donald, of Toronto, and four grandchildren. An only sister, Mrs. James Miller, predeceased him some years ago.

His funeral was conducted at the Tirney Funeral Home by Rev. C. D.
McLellan on Monday afternoon, Nov.
5th and interment was in Riverview Cemetery. Pall - bearers were Messrs. Nelty Hart, Blake Gilbert, John Gibson, Jas. Stewart, William Normile and Robert McFarland. The flower - bearers were employees of McFarland's Garage.

Dear Dr. Burleigh

Your letter of July 19, re
my Huyck query arrived Oct 3.
Yes I am collecting all Huyck
data. Immigrant Jan Huyck (Van Huijgen)
from Holland - 1626 to New Amsterdam, now N.Y. City - His son Andries had several sons including Jochem³ 29 July 1685 - no further data on him - I have most of the other lines complete - that is on his brothers.

However I have some early unidentified families whom I believe belonged to Jochem no doubt the same name as Jochem. There were many others too. I'd need some dates to help you on that one -

Several of the Huyckes were D.C. Loyalists one a member of Butler's Rangers -

I have clues to the identity of several of the above mentioned Loyalists.

With some dates from you very readily I can help - Right now I have a correspondent on the group from Pictou.

Most sincerely

Dear Mr. Burleigh:

So sorry to be so long answering/ I really am anxious to learn more of the Huyck connections in Canada.

I am enclosing a brief which I sent some time ago to a lady at U. E. Loyalist Assoc. You'll note that there are two John and Sarah mar. here but I think that Johannes J. who mar. his cousin were of Saratoga Co., N. Y. Naturally each of them would have had a son Burger and so that was most confusing for a while. Another item I have shows Burger Huyck as witness to a mar. or bap. which mentions another Montanye girl. If you can locate anything of the Montanye family in that area it should help us. The names Garret and Edward are new in this line of the Huyck family so should be a clue to the mothers people.

The following record on Garret Huyck in N. Y. -I've never been able to identify but now I think he is very possibly of the Canada line. Garret Huyck mar. 5 April 1812 Bethlehem Ref Albany Co., N. Y. Maria Ten Eyck b. 1787.
1st son John b. 1813 Coeyman, Albany Co.

Edward Francis b. 1818 Coeymans.

The Cornelius family is probably from the 1st Cornelius Huyck but it will take some time to get that material ready for you. Will send as soon as I can. Maybe you can concentrate on this Montanye family for now.

Sincerely,

Sylvia P. Wilson

*Do you have any am records for Huycks - I have nothing from Ontario
I have three ^{later} lines from Ontario as yet &

them next time*
